

YA-520 Security Vault Door

80mm fire & burglary resistance thickness. YA-520 Vault Door is to be used for storage of National Security information (classified), where 20 Man-hours of surreptitious entry protection is required, .

The Door is secured by 3 1/2" heavy cylindrical steel bolts on the front edge of the door. a combination lock and key lock meeting UL standard .a relocking system secure against Grille Gates and door are coated with a high quality print finish.

Optional time lock are available for adding more security

General services administration approved high security vault door for protection of assets and classified materials